..POLITICS..

Hon. C. L. Weems, of Belmont county, Ohio, than whom no more effective speaker can be named, will address the Republicans of Union district to-night at the corner of Eighteenth and Woods streets, if the weather is fair, and if not at the Republican headquarters, on Sixteenth street. The Elkins Cadets have been ordered out for escort duty preliminary to the meeting, and expect to turn out forty-five strong. The Six-Footers will also turn out.

Elkins Cadets.

The Elkins Cadets have been detailed to receive the American Club of Pittsburgh upon its arrival here Thursday evening at 5:30 o'clock, on the special Pan Handle train. The visitors will be escorted to the McClure, where they will be entertained. The club will drill to-morrow night, and an invitation is extended to all old members to join.

The Bynum-Maher Meeting.

For Wednesday evening's meeting at the Opera House, to be addressed by ex-Congressman William D. Bynum, of Indiana, and Hon. B. F. Maher, of Maine, County Chairman Hornish has named as chairman County Chairman William M. Baird, of the Island.

At Triadelphia.

Messrs. Frank W. Nesbitt and David W. Martin will address a Republican mass meeting at Triadelphia on Friday evening. Mr. Abram McCulloch, one of the candidates for the legislature, will also be present, and address the gathering.

To Voters of 1856 and 1860.

All Republicans who voted for Fremont in 1856 or for Lincoln in 1860 are requested to send their names and addresses to the Intelligencer. They are to be appointed honorary vice presidents of the Roosevelt meeting of Thursday afternoon.

A Straw Vote.

On a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train leaving Wheeling Sunday night, a straw vote was taken, showing the preference of 56 passengers for McKinley and 43 for Bryan. The straw vote test has been tried several times on this road, and always with the same result as this one.

Progressive Club.

The Young Men's Progressive Club will hold a very important meeting at its club room, on Main street, at 8 o'clock to-night. The committee has arranged to have short speeches by Mr. F. Wakesbitt and Dr. D. H. Taylor. There will be five minute speeches made by any member wishing to talk on the subject of politics. The club voted to dismiss all former grievances, if there were any, and to meet each week until after the election, and do their best for the success of the Republican ticket.

"We ask for harmony in our ranks. We acknowledge the right of every citizen to make his own choice and vote his own ticket, but we live under a form of government which recognizes the fact that the majority must rule, therefore, we feel that every member of the club should stand by the majority. If you feel that you cannot vote for some of the candidates, attend the club. Do not become incensed at us, for we are not candidates, but simply voice the sentiment of three-fourths of the club."

The Benwood Meeting.

For the Litchman-Campbell Republican mass meeting at Benwood, the following vice presidents are named: William Whitesides, Michael Whalen, John Geraghty, Will Geraghty, George Fitzgerald, John Leach, Joseph Hall, Albert Snodgrass, H. N. Peabody, Lloyd Bowers, John T. Manley, Harry Bowers, John Lineberger, Will Peabody, Felix Masson, Robert Lindsey, C. H. Seabright, William Hall, Samuel Welch, Henry Crebs.

UNITED AMERICAN MECHANICS

Meet To-day for Their Eleventh Annual Session at Point Pleasant.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.
POINT PLEASANT, Oct. 15.—The eleventh annual session of the Order United American Mechanics meet in Point Pleasant Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock. The representatives from councils are gathering to-day. B. F. Gibbs, state chancellor; W. T. Mitchell, state council secretary; Alex. Bebout, state council treasurer, are present; the other officers will be in this evening. The committees are preparing their reports, and everything points to a lively session with a large attendance of delegates.

At the End of Their String.
Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 15.—The defense in the case of Ellis Glenn, were not ready for trial to-day, and secured another postponement. Judge Jackson, in denouncing their methods, alleged that they are bulldozing the court and intimidated that they were about at the end of their string. The case was set for the 22nd inst., when they were ordered to be ready.

Fell Under the Cars.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.
HINTON, W. Va., Oct. 15.—Luke T. Tiert, aged twenty-three, while attempting to board a moving train at Brooks, five miles west of this city, fell under the cars, the wheels passing over his right foot, mashing it so that amputation was necessary. His home is at Galderson, and he is the principal support of his mother.

Convicted Counterfeiter Captured.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.
PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 15.—Paul Hissom, convicted of counterfeiting in the United States court of this district, about three years ago, and who escaped from the county jail before he was taken to the penitentiary, was captured in Tyler county yesterday, and returned to this city.

IN HIS VALISE.

A Doctor Carries Grape-Nuts Food.
A physician in McDade, Texas, who cured himself by the use of Grape-Nuts food, says: "Lagrippe left me a physical and nervous wreck, with indigestion, dilated stomach, constipation and neurasthenia. I tried electricity, vapor baths, traveling, camping and medicines, ad nauseum.

"Finally I put myself on Grape-Nuts food, and before the first package was gone, I also such an improvement that it seemed difficult to believe. I finally got to carrying Grape-Nuts in my valise, and in my pocket when I didn't have a valise. Yesterday I secured a new case of two dozen packages.

"The facts are that I could eat, and did eat, digest and assimilate the food and gained remarkably in strength. I am now regularly attending to my practice. I have been twenty years in practice, and am free to say that Grape-Nuts food is the most perfectly and scientifically made food I have ever known. My name, for professional reasons, should not be published." It can be given privately to those who care to inquire, by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

Shooting Canes and Cartridges.

WINNING a home is easy through our system of long time, easy payments and low interest. Let us explain the advantages of doing business with this institution.

1521 Market Street.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

William M. Jones, an employe at the Laughlin tin mill, met with a serious accident about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was walking from one part of the mill to the other and was hit on the right side of the head by the spanner. He was immediately removed to his home on South Third street, where a physician was summoned. It is thought that the internal organs of the head may be injured.

Marshall Charles Ervin left last evening for Columbus with requisition papers to be signed by Governor Nash for the return of "Button" Blasco. From Columbus he goes to Albany, N. Y., to have the papers signed by Governor Roosevelt. It is not likely the governor will be in that state at the time, but the matter will be attended to by his chief clerk. He will probably return with his man about Thursday.

The delegates who attended the synodical meeting at Zanesville last week will make their report at the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at the Presbyterian church to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

An effort is being made by the local checker players to organize a club for the coming winter season. The club will include four members and they expect to arrange games with the clubs of Bellaire and Wheeling.

A business meeting of the Mark Hanna club and the Rough Riders was held last evening at Scheele's hall at which time it was decided to attend the parade at Wheeling Thursday evening.

Much interest is being manifested in the concert to be given at the Presbyterian church Friday evening. The best local talent of this city and Wheeling will take part.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wilson, of Clark's addition, left yesterday for Atlin, N. Y., in response to a telegram announcing the death of the latter's mother.

Rev. A. B. Robinson left yesterday for Steubenville, where he will occupy the pulpit of the United Presbyterian church in that city every evening this week.

Both the Republican clubs of this city were out for drill last evening and expect to make a good showing in the parade at Wheeling Thursday.

Charles K. Williams left yesterday for Sistersville, where he has secured a position as teller in one of the banks in that city.

The Martin's Ferry theatrical club will give a dance at Maennerchor hall Friday evening, October 26.

A number from here will attend the Weems meeting at Wheeling this evening.
